1. The Big Picture

We are committed to the privacy of our visitors and clients. Ambassador's Place, operated by King David Cornerstone Limited, is a boutique conference and meeting centre located at 22 King David Street, Jerusalem, Israel. This policy sets out how we will treat your personal information in connection with your use of our facility and our website.

By registering with us, submitting an enquiry form, making a booking, or otherwise using our website, you confirm that you have read, understood, and agreed to this Privacy Policy. You further acknowledge that, except in relation to our own breach of this policy, you waive any claim or demand against King David Cornerstone Limited, in connection with the use of your data as described herein. If you do not agree to this policy, you must not use our website or submit your details to us.

2. What Information Do We Collect?

We receive personal data about you in the following circumstances:

- When you enquire about, book, or use our conference rooms or short-term meeting suites, including providing your name, organisation, professional title, billing address, and VAT number for Israeli tax invoices.
- When you visit and use our website and provide any information, including through our contact or enquiry forms.
- When you carry out any transactions on our website or with us directly, including rental payments, and catering charges.
- When you download any of our publications, register with us, or subscribe to our website services and email notifications.
- When you or your guests attend our premises, your details are recorded for security and access control purposes, including electronic entry logs and CCTV footage from common areas.
- We may collect, store, and use non-personal data about your visits to and use of our website.

3. Information About Website Visits

We may collect information about your computer and your visits to our website such as your IP address, geographical location, browser type, referral source, length of visit, and number of page views. We may use this information in the administration of our website, to improve the website's usability, and for marketing purposes.

We use cookies on this website. A cookie is a text file sent by a web server to a web browser and stored by the browser. The text file is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server. This enables the web server to identify and track the web browser.

We may send a cookie which may be stored by your browser on your computer's hard drive. We may use the information we obtain from the cookie in the administration of this website, to improve the website's usability, and for marketing purposes. We may also use that information to recognise your computer when you visit our website and to personalise your experience.

Our website is built on the Wix platform, which may set its own cookies in connection with website performance and analytics. Please refer to Wix's privacy policy at www.wix.com for further details. Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies, though this may have a negative impact on the usability of our website.

4. Information You Voluntarily Provide

If you provide us with personally identifiable information, for example by sending an email or by filling out a form and submitting it through our website, we use that information to respond to your message, to help us provide you with the information and services you request, and to provide you with relevant information in the future.

Submitting voluntary information constitutes your consent to the use of the information for the stated purposes, as well as for this information to be stored in our systems and to be used as per the guidelines within this Privacy Policy. When you click the "Submit" button on any of the web forms found on our site, you are indicating voluntary consent to use of the information you submit as per the guidelines within this Privacy Policy.

We do not collect or use information gathered for third-party marketing.

5. Publicly Available Information

We may gather publicly available information about you (on websites such as LinkedIn, Facebook, phone directories, and company registries) which will assist us in managing our relationship with you and in providing our services. We may combine this information with other data that we collect and use such combined data for our commercial purposes.

6. Confidentiality of Client Engagements

Given the sensitive and often diplomatic nature of meetings hosted at Ambassador's Place, we treat all client information with the highest level of discretion. We will not disclose which organisations or individuals have used our facilities for any commercial, marketing, or promotional purpose without prior consent. Information about the substance of meetings, negotiations, or discussions held at our premises is not recorded, stored, or shared.

7. CCTV and Surveillance

For the safety and security of our guests and property, CCTV cameras are operational at Ambassador's Place. Cameras are in the reception area, at the top of the stairs, and at the front entrance only. There are no cameras inside any of the five private meeting rooms. The camera at the front entrance door is also used to monitor and record guest check-ins and check-outs, providing a log of who has entered or exited the property.

8. Catering and Dietary Information

Where you provide catering preferences, including dietary requirements and kosher specifications, in connection with an event at Ambassador's Place, this information will be shared with our certified catering partners solely for the purpose of fulfilling your catering order. We do not use dietary or kosher preference data for any other purpose.

9. How We Use Information

We use any information that we receive to provide our clients with our services. In addition, we use the information we collect for a variety of purposes, including to respond to booking and service requests, to process payments and issue invoices, to coordinate event logistics, to maintain the security and operation of our premises, and for analytics and marketing purposes.

We may use any information that you provide or that we collect to provide you with promotional messages in which we believe you will be interested. You can remove your personal information from our mailing list and stop receiving future communications from us by contacting us at pbraude@anglocapital.com. Please note that we reserve the right to send you service-related communications, including booking confirmations and administrative messages relating to your account or transactions, without offering the opportunity to opt out of receiving them unless you cancel your account.

10. Third-Party Tools and Services

Our website is built on the Wix platform. Wix may collect certain technical data in connection with the operation and performance of our website. Please review Wix's privacy policy at www.wix.com for additional information.

Reservations at Ambassador's Place are processed through Book a Space (www.bookasp.com), a third-party booking platform. When making a booking, guests are required to provide personal information including name, email address, phone number, and payment details. Payment information is processed securely through Book a Space's third-party payment providers and Paypal.

Ambassador's Place is not responsible for the data practices of Book a Space. Guests wishing to access, correct, or request deletion of their personal data held by Book a Space may contact them directly or review their Privacy Policy on their website.

11. Security of Your Personal Data

We will take reasonable precautions to prevent the loss, misuse, or alteration of your personal information, both during transmission and once we receive it. Of course, data transmission over the internet is inherently insecure and no method of electronic storage is 100% secure, and we cannot guarantee the security of data sent over the internet.

12. Other Disclosures

In addition to the disclosures reasonably necessary for the purposes identified elsewhere in this privacy policy, we may disclose information about you:

- To the extent that we are required to do so by law, regulation, or in order to cooperate with a law enforcement investigation, including the Israel Police or Israel Tax Authority;
- In connection with any legal proceedings or prospective legal proceedings;
- To establish, exercise, or defend our legal rights, including providing information to others for the purposes of fraud prevention.

13. Your Rights Under Israeli Privacy Law

Under the Israeli Protection of Privacy Law (5741-1981), you have the right to request access to, and correction of, the personal information we hold about you. International clients based in the EU, UK, or other jurisdictions may have additional rights under their local data protection law, including rights of erasure, portability, and objection to processing. We will honour such requests to the extent required by applicable law.

14. Policy Amendments

We may update this privacy policy from time to time by posting a new version on our website. You should check this page occasionally to ensure any changes are acceptable to you. This policy was last updated in 2026.

15. Contact

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or our treatment of your personal data, please contact us.
